Join Pain d'Avignon's Bread of the Month Club

The baguette's in the mail

Your perpetual flakiness has led to the ultimate summer calamity — no Cape travel plans cooking.

Pick up the crumbs with the new Bread of the Month Club from Hyannis-based Pain d'Avignon. The European-style bakery brings the carbs to you with three, six, or twelve months' worth of crusty eats.

Each shipment reflects the season: June means picnic-ready white and multigrain sandwich loaves; come July, expect gourmet hot dog buns accompanied by a house-made porter beer mustard. The holidays bring heart-warming cranberry pecan bread and panettone, while February fulfills romantic kneads with heart-shaped chocolate and hazelnut creations.

Notorious for your half-baked grad/dad/new-baby doodad gifts? Rise to the occasion with a club membership. The one- or two-day shipping times ensure breads arrive fresh no matter where the recipient lives.

It's the yeast you can do.

To sign up for monthly delivery, call 508-778-8588; $150 and up.

A European bakery in the heart of Hyannis, the vacation destination turns out a daily smorgasbord of crusty baguettes, chewy bagels, and gourmet sliced loaves. Come nightfall, the boulangerie transforms into a classic French cafe serving everything from foie gras to steak frites. Can't make it to the Cape? The Bread of the Month Club brings the carbs to you.

Hours of Operation
Daily, 7 a.m.-midnight.
