

A DOCTOR WHO SURVIVED EBOLA SPEAKS OUT + THE OUIJA BOARD'S MOMENT + DELICIOUS APPLE PANCAKES

THE BOSTON GLOBE OCTOBER 19, 2014

Globe Magazine

Colorful wares add whimsy to cookbook author Bea Peltre's Arlington kitchen.

YOUR HOME

MAKE IT YOUR OWN

CREATING A SPACE THAT'S BRIMMING WITH PERSONALITY

BOSTON / Uncommon

FRIDAY

ALL AGLOW

The new outdoor venue the Lawn on D, at 420 D Street in South Boston, hosts a Punkin' Fest from 4-11 p.m. Friday, with free pumpkins available while supplies last. Expect to see a "colossal illuminated punkin' sculpture," as well as jack-o'-lanterns carved by local artists and a light show. Pumpkin bowling, live music, food trucks, and pumpkin ale and cider are also on the menu. lawnond.com