Local spa named on of New England's best

Hidden Pond in Kennebunkport was recognized as one of the Top 12 spa escapes in New England in the January issue of Boston magazine.

Special accolades were given to the resort, located at 354 Goose Rocks Road, as a spa "for the summer camper at heart."

The magazine recommends trying the Maine honey body buzz with warm remedy wrap, at $195 for a 75-minute session. But the magazine also notes that Hidden Pond boasts two outdoor pools, kayaking and beach yoga in addition to "a huge selection of heavenly treatments . . . administered to a New Age harp soundtrack" in one of three rustic cabins, among the amenities nestled on 60 acres of birch groves and balsam fir.
