(NECN) - As Super Bowl Sunday quickly approaches, Celebrity Chef and Sweet Cheeks Owner Tiffani Faison is rolling up her burritos for a good cause - and you can, too!

On Tuesday, Jan. 29, Anna's Taqueria is hosting the kickoff of its monthly celebrity burrito roller series at the Harvard Street store.

Tiffani, a former "Top Chef" contestant, will be on hand to roll burritos at $10-a-pop, with all of the money going to support MassEquality.

Over the years, Anna's has supported countless organizations and has encouraged fundraising at the grassroots level by helping local organizations and volunteers champion the causes they're passionate about.

The burrito rolling series is a continuation of that goal, putting local notables "behind the line" to flex their burrito-rolling muscles in support of the larger community.

Tiffani stopped by "The Morning Show" to teach Steve and viewers how to roll the perfect burrito.
