Bully Boy Hub Punch, $29

In the late 1800s, a bottled rum punch based on a recipe from Boston's Hub Hotel was all the rage in Beantown, but by the early 1900s, the stuff had pretty much disappeared completely. But it's back, thanks for Bully Boy Distillers' combo of barrel-aged rum and a secret mix of citrus, berries and herbs. Mix it with club soda, lemonade, iced tea or ginger ale for an instant cocktail.
