

The Fall Dining Issue

OCTOBER 1-14, 2014

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Covered with olive oil, pecorino and homemade mozzarella

Fired at 900
degrees

Topped with jalapeño and salted lemon slices

Dotted with bonito flakes that dance
in the heat

Finished with fresh arugula

TOP THIS!

WHERE TO FIND THE CITY'S BEST PIES

+ DREAMY DESSERTS, FALL OPENINGS
and APPLE TIPPLES

METRO BOSTON'S PIPING-HOT GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND CARBO-LOADING

$2.50 Outside of Metro Boston

20

METRO BOSTON'S AWARDING GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND LOCAL JAMS

AGENDA

for 10/1-10/14

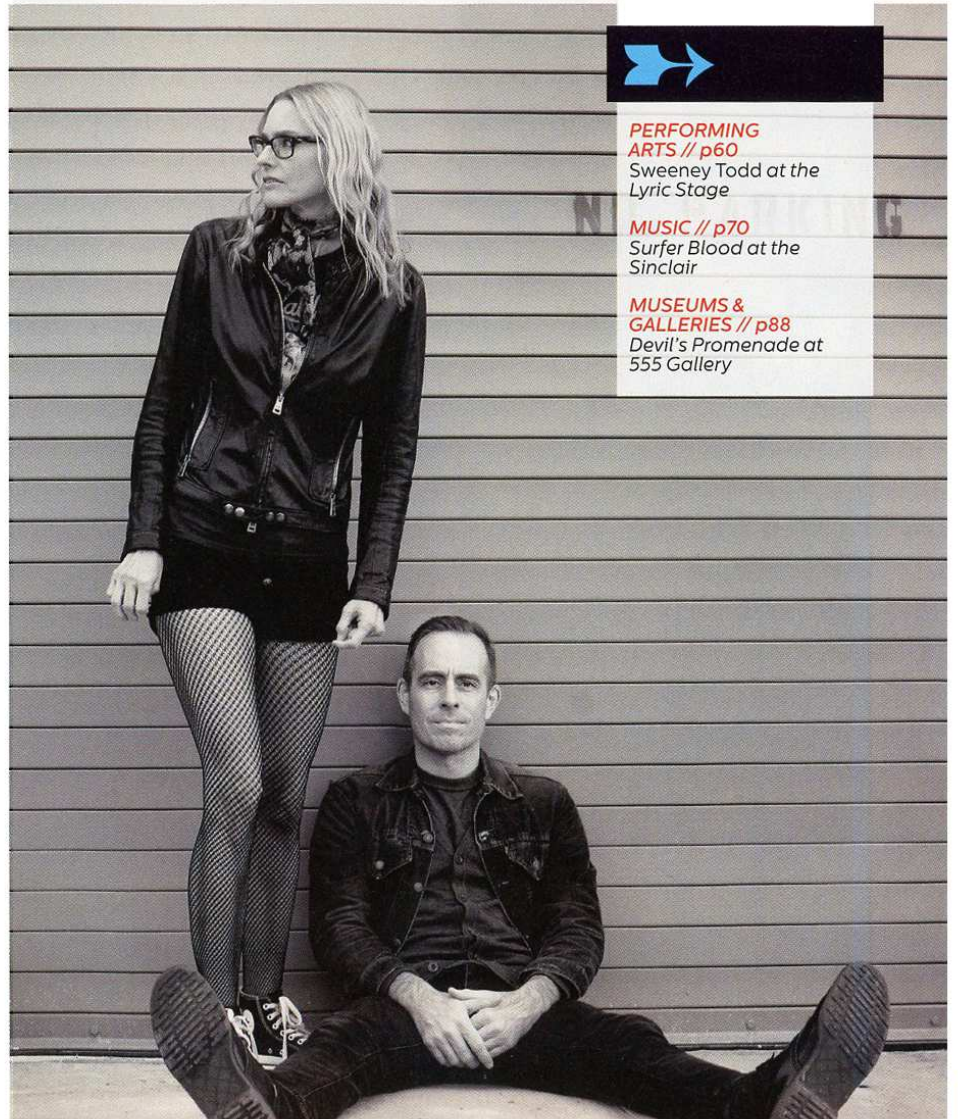

Sounds Good

Awards season kicks off.

'T IS THE SEASON TO CELEBRATE the best of this city's music scene. The nominations for the 2014 Boston Music Awards—the annual awards show and kick-ass party that gives due cred to local artists who've done big things during the past year—will be announced on Oct. 4. This year, however, BMA voting kicks off with another party: the first annual Sound of Our Town, a music festival at the Lawn on D, a new interactive arts space in South Boston. The free all-day fest, presented in part by online music mag Vanyaland and local nonprofit Music Drives Us, features a stacked lineup of talent, including Dutch ReBelle, Speedy Ortiz, Quilt, Hooray for Earth, Eli "Paperboy" Reed, Parks, the Grownup Noise and the Both (aka Aimee Mann and Ted Leo, pictured here), along with DJ sets, booze and likely a few surprises. Did we mention it's free? This year's BMA contenders will be announced at the festival, and voting will commence on the spot. Heads up: Live voting at the event will be weighted more heavily than online voting, so get out there and make your voice heard. / Alexandra Cavallo

SOUND OF OUR TOWN runs from 3 to 10 pm on Oct. 4 at the Lawn on D, 420 D St., Boston. Free. lawnond.com.

CHRISTIAN LANTRY

PERFORMING ARTS // p60
Sweeney Todd at the Lyric Stage

MUSIC // p70
Surfer Blood at the Sinclair

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES // p88
Devil's Promenade at 555 Gallery