

PITTSBURGH TRIBUNE-REVIEW • Week of August 21-27, 2014

TICKET

BIG SOUNDS

LADY ANTEBELLUM AND KISS ROCK PITTSBURGH • 16-17

THEATER 12

Bricolage gets 'Raw' with its latest plays

ART 13

Silver Eye exhibit looks at gentle giants

COMEDY 20

Festival shows city's growing laugh factor

DINING 22

The Strip's Savoy radiates a sophisticated atmosphere

● ● KIDS ZOOFARI ● ●

AT THE PITTSBURGH ZOO & PPG AQUARIUM • AUGUST 16-29

chip Pennsylvania's Children's Health Insurance Program We Cover All Kids.

UPMC for Kids
A Product of UPMC Health Plan

DININGNEWS

Notion

Chef Dave Racicot of Notion, 128 S. Highland Ave., East Liberty, will pay tribute to quintessential Pittsburgh fare with a special six-course tasting menu to show guests that high-end food doesn't have to be unfamiliar.

The menu of iconic items speaks to the Burgh's multicultural heritage, particularly that of European immigrants who brought a melting pot of Slavic, Dutch, Italian and other culinary traditions to the city in the early 20th century.

Guests can expect dishes that creatively combine old- and new-world traditions with modernist techniques and imaginative plating for a new spin on food that defines Pittsburgh and its history, including Pittsburgh salad, pierogies, cabbage rolls, chipped ham, city chicken, haluski, kielbasa,

NOTION

Chef Dave Racicot of Notion in East Liberty will pay tribute to quintessential Pittsburgh fare with a special six-course tasting menu to show guests that high-end food doesn't have to be unfamiliar.