HOT ART » BY JILL VON SPRECKEN

Arty Party

Unleash your inner artiste in a palette-pleasing evening of art and libations with Paint Nite. Located at some of the trendiest watering holes around Vancouver, these events feature a sample painting to inspire, hands-on instructors to guide the process, plenty of artistic freedom and encouragement, and all the supplies an aspiring Van Gogh may need. Wet your whistle with a bevvy and your paintbrush with a dab of colour. The end result? Paint-splattered proof of your budding virtuosity. For event dates and details, visit www.paintnite.com.

Winter Warmer

Snow bunnies on the North Shore stop by CityScape Community Art Space (page 50) to warm up with the salon-style Art Rental Show (Jan. 10 to 25), which features more than 400 pieces of local art, and poignant portraiture in About Face (Jan. 31 to Mar. 1).
