The UnFast Food Revolution

Greasy fast food is so 2010. Do you really want to gain the freshman 15, get adult acne and have french fry grease stains on your new white T? Yeah, didn't think so. Join the unfast food revolution and chow down on a few of our favorite quick order spots. They will fill you up, without filling you out.

UFood Grill

Join the unfast food revolution with UFood Grill.

Honest comfort food that is grilled, baked or steamed, never fried. That goes for their "unfried" French fries too.

No matter what you are craving, UFood has you covered, from salads and wraps, to pizzas and burgers and even something sweet with their signature Smuuthies and UBerry soft-serve, UFood has got something for everyone, health nut or not.

Anna's Taqueria

Anna's is a Sumo favorite for several reasons, but the first and most important is, they make one hell of a burrito. Big, fresh and delicious every time, an Anna's burrito is never soggy.

Another favorite of ours is their signature drinks. Go beyond soda and try a Horchata from Jamaica or Jarritos, which is a Mexican Juice. Come on, try something new every day right?
