The Gift of Food

FRIDAY MARCH 4, 2011

If you're planning on getting ready for your wedding with all your bridesmaids, don't just order a pizza to feed the gang. Boston's Bakers' Best Catering offers a new "Gift of Food" program where you can order full catered meals for a group delivered to your home, or even the salon where you're getting beautified. Whether it's the "Comforts of Home" menu, which features four-cheese lasagna, antipasto salad, focaccia, and cookies, or the "Simple Beginnings" breakfast menu with freshly baked muffins, scones, and mini croissants, individual quiches, and fruit salad, it's a great way to keep the crew happy, fed, and energized for the long day ahead. And, if you're looking for a gift to give a newlywed couple, I love the idea of sending a meal to their home the day they return from their honeymoon. It's likely that they'll be hungry and exhausted after a long trip, and the fridge is likely to be bare. Meals start at $40 for four servings. For more information, visit Bakers' Best Catering's website, and don't forget to visit our food and drink gallery for lots of creative catering ideas.—Kim Forrest, Brides Boston
