

The Premier Spa Business Resource

DAY SPA[®]

May 2011
dayspamagazine.com $5.00

What a Man Wants

Get male clients to make a commitment!

Page 80

PLUS

Linen closet makeovers
Top trends in gemstone facials
Turning client gripes into opportunities

MUST HAVE | Product Premiere

Put some spring in your spa with these new beauty basics.

1. OPI Products Manicure/Pedicure by OPI Lemon Tonic Massage

The newest addition to the nailcare company's spa line, this massage lotion transports clients with scents of lemon, vanilla, ginger and white tea. 800.341.9999, opi.com

4. Sothys Nutritive Comfort Cream

This floral moisturizer leaves complexions silky. It's also formulated with polysaccharides that help skin to better retain moisture. 800.325.0503, sothys-usa.com

6. DermaQuest Stem Cell 3D Complex

This fresh-smelling night cream gets its restorative power from lilac leaf-derived stem cells. 800.213.8100, dermaquestinc.com

2. Nature Pure Labs Pomodoro Dual-Action Masque

The lycopene in this tomato seed- and jojoba bead-rich exfoliant scavenges free radicals, leaving clients' skin radiant and smooth. 866.640.SKIN, naturepure.com

3. Dermelect Cosmeceuticals Facial Spider Vein Treatment

Arnica, cypress and a bevy of natural healing nutrients in this cream reduce the appearance of spider veins and red threads on clients' legs, as well as broken capillaries that often create red cheeks and noses. 888.MY.DERMELECT, dermelect.com

5. Essie Cosmetics Borrowed & Blue

It's love at first sight! This pretty hue is part of the 2011 Wedding Color Collection. 800.232.1155, essie.com

7. Cuccio Naturalé Stainless Steel Pedicure File

No job is too tough for this newcomer with an unbreakable, ergonomic metal handle. It also includes plenty of single-use pedicure abrasive papers—an optimal touch for clients' peace of mind. 800.762.6245, cuccio.com

