What's the best Valentine's Day gift? Actually the ones that are simple and sweet. For the chocolate lover in all of us, we chose truffles. For the kiddies, we found plush toys and a DVD. And for the guys, we found a unique six-pack grooming kit. And one of our favorites: the St. Louis Blues are offering a Hearts & Hockey Valentine's package, which includes two discounted tickets to the Feb. 14 game vs. Vancouver and two flutes of champagne and strawberries hand-dipped in milk chocolate (starting at $40 for 2 tickets). Tickets must be ordered by calling 314-622-2583. Find more info at stltoday.com/steals. Take a look here at more ideas to spoil your sweetie.

Here's a gift that gives 20 times. Vouchers will express your affection for desires such as a "Candlelit Bath" or "End to Argument," on the schedule of his or her choosing ($7.95 for 20 coupons) at Artmart, 2355 South Hanley Road.

Pink heart pajamas are lightweight and comfortable ($11.99 for top and $11.99 for bottom) at Target.

Zoobies Lilly the Ladybug is a plush toy, blanket and pillow all in one ($29.99) at Dillard's.

If your family is wild about popcorn, you'll love the Wild About You design tins. You can add a photo label that will make your Valentine's gift unforgettable ($24.99 to $39.99) at thepopcornfactory.com.

This Six Pack Kit can't combat love handles, but you may get a goodnight kiss from your Valentine. The kit includes a mint shampoo, mint body wash, mint face wash, mint shave cream, mint face lotion, twin-pack lip balm and a toiletry bag ($25). The kit is available at EveryManJack.com and individual products can be found at Target stores.

This festive pink mug is perfect for coffee and tea drinkers on Valentine's Day ($4.99) at Kohl's.

Help your Valentine get organized with the My Life Matters Personal Planner for Women. The planner is arranged so she can set goals and track progress in not only general organization, but wellness, nutrition, fitness, monthly personal budgeting, spiritual well-being and more ($26.95 for a six-month planner and $49.95 for 2011 yearly planner) at womansplanner.com and amazon.com.
