Holiday shopping is a marathon, not a sprint.
We'll help you break the tape
with the best gifts ever.

BY CLOE CABRERA | The Tampa Tribune

Ready or not, the holiday shopping season is upon us. But never fear — 4you is here to make finding gifts for the fashion, beauty and fitness fans on your list just a little bit easier. So make your list, check it twice, fire up your computer and let's start with these online beauty and fashion finds:

- 1. "Feel the Love" jewelry — This Braille jewelry collection allows the wearer to feel the love, literally. The gemstones spell out the word love in Braille. Necklaces and rings can be customized with a choice of eight precious metals and 16 gemstones. Can't find what you're looking for? Just ask. Prices for the ring start at about $200; www.Gemvara.com.
- 2. Scandle, shimmering body candle — This candle gives off a beautiful glow and smells yummy; when it melts, you have a pool of body lotion. Even when the candle is lighted, the soy lotion is never more than 2 degrees above body temperature, so it won't burn you. The pot comes with a spout so you can pour the warm lotion right onto your skin. The travel tin is $13.95; the refillable ceramic candle with pour spout is $22.95. - 3. Cool-It Caddy — The Florida heat can spell doom for your favorite lipstick or eye pencil if you leave your makeup bag in the car. The Cool-It Caddy is like a cooler for cosmetics or heat-sensitive medicine. You simply pop it in the freezer, fill it with whatever you want to keep cool, and go. The bags are available in styles for women and men. Prices start at $29.95 at www.Cool-Itcaddy.com.
- 4. AquaSun Sunless Tanning System — Airbrush tans have become a popular way to stay bronze without the dangers of overexposure to ultraviolet rays. This at-home system is convenient and easy to use. It includes a wand that snaps onto an aerosol can and allows you to spray your body with a super-fine mist. There are no fumes or odors. When it dries, you have a golden brown tan that is safe and lasts about a week; $59.95 at www.aquasuntan.com.
- 5. Flea Chic Fab — Flea Chic Fab owner Nichole Agüero recycles old earrings, brooches and buttons, and turns them into one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces. "My goal with every piece is to stir up the exciting and mesmerizing emotions that we all felt when we would look through our grandmothers' jewelry boxes as little girls," says Agüero, who is based in Lakeland. Check out her work at www.fleachicfab.etsy.com. You can reach her at fleachicfab@aol.com or (863) 668-1510.
- 6. Boo Boo Bling — Cuts and scratches happen. But why settle for a boring beige bandage when you can add a little bling to your boo-boo? Your wound will look fashionable hidden by a bejeweled bandage that is sure to take your outfit up a notch; $5.99 a pack, includes clear bandages; <http://shop.boobooblingshop.com>.
- 7. Burberry Lip Charm — Beauty and fashion aficionados will love this stylish key chain featuring three metal cubes, the largest of which contains Burberry's Nude Beige No. 1 gloss, a shade that flatters every skin tone. The charm can be worn as an accessory item clipped onto a bag or belt; $85 at www.Nordstrom.com.
- 8. Man bag — Whether your man is a dapper dresser or a jeans and sneakers kind of dude, there is a man bag to fit his needs. Masculine, attractive and functional man bags, or "murses," have become a popular fashion accessory in Hollywood and around town. Stick with a classic messenger bag like this one and you can't go wrong; Kenneth Cole $85.99 at www.amazon.com.
