Need Some Hair?

Although a bald head can be hot -that's not always the case.

See? Point made.

Now given the fact that the majority of folks out there NEED hair to look their best - the Hair Club of New England is offering QUITE the contest to celebrate their 30th anniversary.

New Englanders are being invited to send in a 500 word essay (send it to 30@hairclubnewengland.com) about how hair loss has impacted their life for the chance to win a complimentary hair restoration treatment. Two winners - one male and one female - will be chosen by employees of the company at the end of September 2010 - based on their stage of hair loss, appropriateness of the solution and personal preferences.

Now, that's quite the contest considering hair replacement therapy is EXTREMELY expensive - and the prize is valued at upwards of $3,000. So get writing people! The deadline for this contest is: August 31, 2010.

(The Fine Print: The contest is open only to legal U.S. residents who are 18 years of age or older as of 5/1/10 and is void wherever prohibited or restricted by applicable federal or state laws and regulations. Employees of the Sponsor, officers, directors, agents, employees, advertising and promotion agencies and members of their immediate families (spouses, parents, children, and siblings and their spouses) are not eligible. Entries that are incomplete, illegible or corrupted are void and will not be accepted. All entries become the property of the Sponsor and will not be acknowledged or returned. Hair Club will not use any photos or essay of the winners for any advertising or promotional materials without the consent of the entrant. All online entries must be received before 11:59 PM Eastern Time on September 1, 2010 to be eligible for receive the contest prize. Entrants agree that the Sponsor may contact the entrant via email to request additional information.)
