ESPA BOTANICAL RESCUE The ultimate rescue remedy for winter weary skin has come in the form of ESPA Botanical Rescue. This deeply nourishing, hydrating and intensive moisture balm can be used on heels, knees, cuticles, elbows, and any other dry, weather-beaten areas. The tamanu and manuka oils, renowned for their restorative properties, offer barrier protection from the environment, and a moisture shield for dehydrating long-haul flights. Retail at $63. For more information visit www.espaonline.com.

CAUDALIE Caudalie's new Lotion Tonique purifies and hydrates. Containing exclusive Vinolevure®, a molecule found in wine yeast, this deeply moisturizing skin tonic increases and stimulates the activity of Langerhans cells, which strengthen the skin's immune defenses. Boasting an energizing blend of citrus flower, orange tree leaves, watermelon and crushed mint. Retail for $26. For more information visit www.caudalie-usa.com.

DERMELECT COSMECEUTICALS Suffering with rosacea? Looking for the latest skincare product to relieve the visible redness? Then Redness-Rehab Rosacea Relief is the Dermelect Cosmeceuticals product you've been looking for. This silky cream soothes, hydrates and brightens the skin while relieving blotchiness. It even diminishes the look of broken capillaries. Oil-, fragrance- and paraben-free, Redness-Rehab retails at $42. For more information visit www.dermelect.com.
