

The List

Irish eyes are smiling, because Irish mouths are busy

Wear These: Irish Sauconys

At SEAC: 652 Tremont St, at W Brookline; South End; 617.391.0897

Make it a pub run with a pair of limited-edition Celtic green/black Saucony Jazz Lo Pro Celebration Series kicks (along with the Freestyle 20x10 Series Shark watch in Irish colors) designed w/ a shamrock on the heel and an inscription on the lower footbed that reads, "There are only two kinds of people in the world: the Irish and those who wish they were" -- a phrase you'll be able to read up close if you rock a Rangers F.C. jersey to Murphy's Law.

You can also get winter gear at 20% off at SouthEndAthleticCompany.com

New Eats: Jerry Remy's Sports Bar & Grill

1265 Boylston St, btw Ipswich & Yawkey; Fenway; 617.236.7369

Going big or not going at all, the Rem Dawg's outgrown his space at Logan and opened a second significantly larger location in the shadow of Fenway serving up burgers, sammies, and "totally serious plates" like marinated grilled skirt steak w/ bacon-wrapped mac & cheese and a chili rubbed 24-oz bone-in cowboy ribeye w/ smashed garlic potatoes, all in a 300+ seat spot that boasts 11 flatscreens behind the bar alone -- your move, Cask'n Flagon.

Check out your new pre/post Sox game hangout at JerryRemys.com

Irish Eats: Cuff's Guinness Poached Prawns

At The Back Bay Hotel: 350 Stuart St, at Berkeley; Back Bay; 617.532.3828

If you prefer your Patty's Day with a touch o' class, hit Cuffs for upscale Irish-themed treats like grilled pork sausage Dublin Coddle w/ bacon veggie stew, and six poached jumbo prawns marinated overnight in Guinness and served in a fresh pint of the creamy suds with a side of Jameson's whiskey dip, which sounds suspiciously like what you'll experience at the end of the night, if you keep eating beer-soaked shrimp.

Check out the full one-day menu at DoyleCollection.com

Hang These: Drunken Gnome's Bottle Cap/Label Frames & Mirrors

Straight outta Watertown, these 10x10 wooden mirrors are tastefully adorned w/ a random assortment of 60 flattened beer bottle caps while the 5x7 standing/hanging picture frames are hand-painted/decorated with beer labels before being glazed for protection, also a questionable plot twist in James Melkonian's The Stoned Age.

They'll also custom make 'em based on your favorite brew at Etsv.com

Free Grub: Corned Beef at the Irish Village

224 Market St, at Faneuil; Brighton; 617.787.5427

Head to the most realest of Irish pubs in the realest of Irish sections of Boston for master poured Guinness and gratis corned beef sammies from 11am on as you rock out to traditional Irish tunes from Finbar Doyle -- who apparently left his brother Fubar at home so things wouldn't get totally out of hand.

Check out video on how to pour the perfect pint at IrishVillageBrighton.com

