

A FOOD LOVER'S
GUIDE TO
The North End

HOW HARVARD
Kennedy School
ABANDONED AMERICA

THE LIFE, DEATH, AND
REBIRTH OF BOSTON'S
Counterculture

FIVE EASY WAYS
TO BEAT THE Winter Blues

Boston

Who Makes What

THE 2017
SALARY SURVEY
Page 58

FROM TOM BRADY TO ACROBATS TO TITANS OF TECH, THIS IS WHAT BOSTON EARNS.
HOW DOES YOUR PAYCHECK STACK UP?

SECTIONS & DEPARTMENTS

News & Culture

Edited by Lisa Weidenfeld

- 19 Is the South End's ban on space savers policy for the privileged?
- 20 City Spy: The first-ever Nerdcon comes to the Hynes Convention Center.
- 22 How the Bay State stacks up this Oscar season.
- 23 Sentient Jet president and CEO Andrew Collins on power lunches and why Logan needs a makeover.
- 24 Matthew Reed Baker's guide to February events.
- 25 This month's party pictures.

Life & Style

Edited by Abby Bielagus

- 31 A striking Valentine's Day bouquet from Table & Tulip.
- 32 Add some brawn to your wardrobe with spring's menswear-inspired looks.
- 34 Lingerie sets prove that sometimes, the most important outfit is the one nobody can see.
- 36 Local spas with everything you need for a little TLC.
- 38 Beat seasonal affective disorder with these expert tips.
- 40 Real estate showdown: a grand Portland manse versus a stylish Back Bay condo.
- 42 Join the jet set with bold, statement-making black furniture and accessories.
- 44 Shinola's sleek new turntable is an audiophile's dream upgrade.

PUT YOUR RECORDS ON

Shinola's "Runwell" turntable was produced in collaboration with high-end audio manufacturer VPI Industries. See page 44.

Departments

- 47 The Interview: Bill Burr
The Canton native and funnyman takes on his biggest role yet: being a dad.
By Chris Sweeney
- 51 Parenting in the Age of Anger
White supremacy wasn't something I thought I'd have to talk to my kids about. Then Donald Trump got elected.
By Alexandra Hall
- 55 Shooters' Paradise
More than 96 percent of gunmen involved in non-fatal shootings are never arrested in Boston. The cops know it—but will they do anything about it? By David S. Bernstein

Food & Drink

Edited by Jenna Pelletier

- 85 Cultures meld at Ruka, the Godfrey Hotel's new Peruvian-Asian restaurant.
- 86 Cozy up at home with these snow-season-inspired treats.
- 87 Up the romance factor on your next date night with a modern craft cocktail designed for two.
- 88 Five chefs' takes on gourmet shareable toasts.
- 90 Jolyon Helterman visits Waypoint, in Harvard Square.

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

- 8 Online
- 12 The Best of Boston Readers' Poll
- 14 Editor's Letter
- 16 The Dialogue
- 17 Contributors
- 92 Restaurant Listings
- 133 Credits
- 136 One Last Question

Cover photograph by Bruce Peterson

"Runwell" steel, aluminum, and wood turntable, $2,500, Shinola.

YOUR CHERISHED VINYL deserves better than that tired old record player in a suitcase. For audiophiles who want their equipment to look as sleek as it sounds, Shinola's new "Runwell" turntable is a dream upgrade. Produced in collaboration with high-end audio manufacturer VPI Industries and assembled in Detroit, the two-speed, belt-driven show-

COVET

For the Record

piece is available at the lifestyle brand's recently opened Prudential Center showroom. Purists will appreciate the high sound quality from the precision-machined-metal components, while those who can't wait to dance will love the built-in phono preamplifier that allows the player to be plugged in right out of the box. —ABBY BIELAGUS