

THE BOSTON GLOBE • WEDNESDAY • MARCH 13, 2013

food wednesday

SHORT ORDERS A TASTE OF WHAT'S OUT THERE

Fresh bread delivered to your door

What's better than picking up a delicious loaf of fresh-baked bread for dinner? Having one delivered right to your door. Pain D'Avignon Cafe-Boulangerie in Hyannis, which for 20 years has sold loaves and classic European pastries, has created a Bread of the Month Club to get seasonal breads, rolls, and buns to doorsteps across the country. March offers a round of Irish soda bread with currants; April, a multigrain Pullman loaf and pull-apart rolls. There's a holiday panettone studded with golden raisins for December. Subscriptions are available at three levels: three months ($150), six months ($275), and 12 months ($500); prices include 2-day shipping charges. A bread aficionado's dream.

Pain D'Avignon Bread of the Month Club, 508-778-8588, or go to www.paindavignon.com.
CRISTIN NELSON