

AUGUST 29, 2013 / ENTERTAINMENT

THE WEEKEND GUIDE

By Meaghan Agnew

There's a cold front coming.

FREEZE

Frost Ice Bar Opens

What: Shiver ye timbers at a high-concept watering hole made entirely of ice blocks and kept at a bracing 21 degrees Fahrenheit (the complimentary gloves and insulated capes make survival a bit easier).

Why: During your maximum 45-minute stay, gulp down a 1912 (Crop cucumber vodka, Altar Chi, ginger liqueur, ginger beer) while admiring the Zakim Bridge sculpture and ice-crystal chandeliers.

When: Opens Fri. Daily, noon-11 p.m. (Winter hours, 2-9 p.m.)

Where: 1 Faneuil Hall Marketplace (above American Eagle Outfitters), Downtown (617-307-7331). Tickets ($19) at frosticebar.com.