

BCA: Special-Edition Pink Grapefruit Scrub

October 3, 2009 by Kori Ellis

A special-edition Pink Grapefruit version of The Body Deli's best-selling body scrubs was created in honor of breast cancer's signature color...pink! This sweet-smelling scrub is chemical-free and formulated with rich African shea, cocoa and virgin coconut butter to fortify and nourish your skin.

The extra fine grain sea salt is used to create a gentle exfoliating skin polish that refines and smooths the skin. As you might know, The Body Deli products are a celeb-favorite of Kate Hudson, Alicia Silverstone and Lipstick Jungle's Lindsay Price.

Priced at $32, this special-edition scrub is benefiting the local California cancer charity, Gilda's Club with $6 from every unit sold going to the organization. You can purchase this amazing grapefruit scrub online at thebodydeli.com.

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, various beauty and fashion companies are partnering with charities around the world that benefit breast cancer awareness, research, support and treatment. Throughout the month of October, we are highlighting these special breast cancer awareness products at Splendicity.

We hope you will keep some of these items in mind as you shop throughout the month. It's a terrific way to give back to a worthwhile cause, while buying amazing clothes, accessories, makeup and other beauty products.
