

TimeOut

NEW YORK

Meet Chloe,
page 18

Pets and the city

NYC's pet obsession is making us all a little happier.

Escape from New York

Because even the most loyal New Yorker needs to flee the greatest city on earth sometimes.

Cape Cod, MA

Get lost in the dunes

Pack up your tent and a six-pack of Cape Cod Beer for a stay at Race Point, a sprawling National Seashore beach and one of two waterfronts on the Cape where you can camp overnight. It costs only $75 per week for a permit to sleep on the peninsula's sands.

→ Rte 6 East to Race Point Rd, Provincetown, MA (nps.gov/caco/planyourvisit/race-point-beach.htm)

Hear it through the grapevine

Take a stroll through the grapevines and the idyllic 1830s farmhouse at Truro Vineyards of Cape Cod. Book early to sample five signature wines at the spot's daily $10-tasting. Prefer something stronger? There's also an on-site distillery called South Hollow Spirits, where rum and gin is made.

→ 11 Shore Rd, North Truro, MA (508-487-6200, trurovineyardsofcapecod.com)

Eat seafood by the seashore

A local hangout for more than 40 years, The Beachcomber has some of the best buffalo wings and seafood plates on the Cape. The parking lot can fill up fast during peak season, but the beachfront views are worth the wait. Stay late on the weekends to catch live local bands.

→ 1120 Cahoon Hollow Rd, Wellfleet, MA (508-349-6055, thebeachcomber.com)

Go bargain hunting

At the quirky Wellfleet Flea Market, more than 200 local vendors sell their wares at the Wellfleet Drive-In Theatre on weekends

INSIDER SECRETS

Locals give it to you straight.

"Take the ferry from Hyannis to Nantucket for a day trip."

—Doug

"Head to the Yardarm in Orleans to try the best clam chowder on the Cape."

—Denise

"Visit downtown Wellfleet for some of the best art galleries."

—Ellen

"Grab a slice of key lime pie at Relish."

—Zach

FUN FACT

Author Kurt Vonnegut opened the country's first Saab dealership in West Barnstable.

throughout the year and every Wednesday and Thursday through Labor Day. Grab a brew from the beer garden or a snack from a food truck while you shop.

→ 51 Rte 6, Wellfleet, MA (508-349-0541, wellfleetcinemas.com/flea-market)

Don't forget the cherry on top

You can't leave the Cape without visiting this old-school ice cream spot. Opened by a schoolteacher in the 1970s, Sundaes School continues to serve traditional fruit sundaes with homemade whipped cream and a fresh cherry. Choose from more than 30 flavors to go with the legendary toppings.

→ Various locations (sundaeschool.com)

■ Katie Lockhart

DISCOVER!

Find more ways to get the hell out of the city at timeout.com/newyork/travel.