← BEST HOT DOGS Nathan's Famous Jalapeno & Cheddar Beef Franks

Stuffed with cheese and chiles, the sausages impressed staffers who liked the "meaty flavor that wasn't too salty or spicy." $5 for 5

← BEST TUNA Chicken of The Sea Infusions: Basil

Whether served over salad or eaten on its own (there's a fork in the lid!), this wild-caught tuna with olive oil and sweet basil was a lunchtime favorite. $2.29 for 2.8 oz.

← BEST JERKY Krave Cracked Peppercorn Gourmet Beef Cuts

Tasters gave high marks for "the perfect jerky texture" (not stringy or chewy like others we tried) and bold pepper flavor. $6 for 2.7 oz.

← BEST CHICKEN Perdue SimplySmart Organics: Lightly Breaded Chicken Breast Strips

Fully cooked and frozen, the lightly breaded strips take minutes to heat up—and come out plump, crispy and juicy. $10 for 24 oz.

TIP FROM THE TEST KITCHEN!

"If you're making hot dogs for a cookout, first poach them in boiling water for 2 to 3 minutes. Then toss them on a high-heat grill to get some char. This will ensure they stay juicy and plump and not dry out over the fire."

—SHAY SPENCE, People food editor

BEST TURKEY BURGER Applegate Organics 'The Great Organic Blend Burger'

No dry burgers here! Organic mushrooms are mixed into the patties, helping the turkey meat stay juicy and flavorful. $10 for 4
